Since entering her first health food store in the 1970's, Leslie Cerier has explored all aspects of food and cooking—from organic and vegetarian to macrobiotic and gluten-free. In addition to running her western Massachusetts based catering business, Leslie—or, The Organic Gourmet, as she is widely known—works as a personal chef, cooking instructor, recipe developer, and product spokesperson. Oh, and she also makes time to do yoga, dance, and garden!
